

Summer Camp Information!

June 10-13-Beginner Mini Camp, Ages 5-7 only. $375

This camp is designed for the beginner horse lover! We will be focusing on teaching the rider proper horse safety, horse care, grooming, feeding, saddling, and beginner riding skills. Riders will enjoy riding a variety of horses to experience what is all offered in riding horses. We will enjoy fun horse games, crafts and get the riders comfortable riding independently. Parents will be invited to watch your rider ride on Thursday June 13 from 1:30-3pm to watch your rider! After this camp, each participant will be invited to participate in our Farm Show, July 27, details will be provided at the camp. Riders will need to pack a lunch, extra drinks and snacks will be provided. Each camper will receive a camp shirt and a memory item! This camp is limited to 10 riders.

June 5-9, Intermediate to Advanced HORSE SHOW CAMP!!!, $450

This camp is for the rider that has at least 2 years of riding experience or has been approved to join this camp. If rider owns their own horse and would like to use it for this camp contact Jessica Daniels for additional information. Riders will spend a majority of their time riding and preparing their horse to compete at a horse show. Campers will brush up their riding skills, learn how to band/braid, clip, execute patterns and other details needed to attend a show. On Sunday June 9 riders will get the opportunity to show at the Reality Dreams Open Horse Show in Lancaster, Ohio. Camp fee includes camp instruction, use of horse, preparing horse and rider for the show, hauling to the show, entry fees, stall fees, and use of tack. Riders will be responsible for supplying their own show clothes, some show clothes may be available to borrow. Riders are also invited to participate in our Farm Show, July 27, details will be provided at camp. Riders will need to pack a lunch, extra drinks and snacks will be provided. Each camper will receive a camp shirt. This camp is limited to 4 english and 4 western riders.
